Read the Novel "The Canterville Ghost" by Oscar Wilde

Having read the book, answer the following questions in punched sheets:

- "The Canterville Ghost" is a study of contrasts. Do you agree? Value points:
 - Clash between American and British cultures—object of satire
 - British determined to guard their tradition.
 - Sceptic Otis family—Cantervilles guard their 'punctilious honour'
 - Contrast in the characters
- Discuss the setting of the story "The Canterville Ghost"

Value Points:

- Story full of supernatural elements
- Perfect setting
- Haunted mansion
- o Ghosts, gothic elements, revenge, murders, spooky incidents
- Events to defy natural laws
- Main protagonist a ghost
- Horrifying sounds
- Use of demonic scenes
- Scary moonlight
- Give a character-sketch of Virginia as the harbinger of love and peace.

Value points:

- Sensitive and benevolent
- Sympathetic towards the ghost
- Dared to risk her life to liberate the ghost
- Enlightened after the journey to the garden of death
- Instrumental in bringing peace to a tormented soul
- o A representative of both, British as well as American cultures
- The most interesting part of the story is the reversal of the expected situation when the Otis family terrorizes the ghost instead of being terrorized by him. Discuss.
- Oscar Wilde has the ability to play with the conventions of many genres

Value points:

- Fairy tales
- Gothic novels
- Ghosts and horror elements
- Abundant use of wit and humour
- Satirizes the weakness of his characters—Mrs. Otis, the Twins.
- Use of vocabulary—Old English words-gives the story an archaic flavour
